

Shoemaker and Son

Izmir, Turkey

The shoemaker was set up on the outskirts of Izmir. They used old inner tubes for soles. Everything was handmade. The burlap was to keep the flies away as they worked. They pulled up the flap and closed the old door at night and walked away.